

The most delicate
work is the work of the heart to the glory of God.